

2016 Iron Horse District – Eagle Scout Project of the Year Award

The Iron Horse District Eagle Scout Project of the Year Award is for the Eagle project, completed in the current year, that is deemed to be the most outstanding of those nominated, based on the need for the service, leadership provided, the benefit to the recipient, scope of project, and lasting impact.

Projects considered for the Eagle Project of the Year Award will have met the criteria as specified by BSA, and may be nominated for recognition by any unit registered adult leader.

All projects performed in 2016 by Iron Horse district registered Scouts are eligible for consideration.

Scout Name: _____ Unit Type/Number: _____

Project Title: _____

Location: _____

Hours Logged: _____ Number of Participants: _____

Please describe the project – how it was chosen, what the desired outcome was, where it was done, how the Scout provided leadership, how the project was carried out, how long it took to complete, and the lasting impact. You may also include pictures of the “before” condition, project in progress, and “after” status.

(Continue on back of if necessary):

Submitted by: _____ Unit: _____

Position: _____ Phone: _____

Nominations for this award must be received by Orville Neeley, Iron Horse District Commissioner no later than January 20, 2017. Nomination entries received after this date will not be considered. Forms may be turned in at any Iron Horse District January Roundtable meeting, or emailed to orville.neeley@gmail.com or carla-burnett@sbcglobal.net.