

2016 Iron Horse District – Scout of the Year Award

The Iron Horse District Scout of the Year Award is for that Scout who has displayed unrivaled Scout spirit in his unit, community, family, church, school and in Iron Horse District by his or her support and promotion of the Scouting program. This will be shown through personal conduct (abiding by the Scout Law and Oath or Promise, appropriate to the type of unit), meeting attendance, participation in unit/district/council activities and events, acts of service, performance as a leader, and overall interaction with others.

Scouts considered for the Scout of the Year Award must be currently registered with BSA, for Iron Horse District, and may be nominated for recognition by any unit or district registered adult leader.

All Iron Horse District registered Scouts are eligible for consideration.
